Will Katanga Go Communist?

U. S. TAXPAYERS TOOL OF RED FRONTING U. N. & STATE DEPARTMENT

PEACE BY FORCE

Republished from—
Cincinnati Enquirer

Did you know that you, as an American taxpayer, are footing the bill to wipe out a pro-Western government and to hand over to the communists a region with the world's richest supply of fissionable material and other great mineral wealth?

If you don't, it's time—and way past time—that you did know.

What is happening today in the Katanga Province seems utterly incredible, except that it happens to be all too much of a ghastly reality.

Here we are witnessing another China, another Cuba—and an inescapable illustration of how we may contribute to our own ultimate defeat through the machinery of the United Nations—that not-so-tender trap of American foreign policy.

LET'S REVIEW the scene:

When independence fell upon the Belgian Congo, Russian and Red Chinese technicians and other experts on colonialism were on the ground in a matter of hours. It would be an insult to anyone's intelligence to say that these communists had any interest in the peoples of the Congo, or in much of the territory.

They wanted Katanga. Its copper mines and other mineral wealth yield a revenue of almost $1 billion a year. More important, the region is the world's richest supply of pitchblende, with a uranium content twice that of the Canadian ore, and 20 to 30 times that of the sources immediately available to Russia in the depleted mines of Czechoslovakia and Saxony. (A fact which takes on deadly meaning indeed since Nikita Khrushchev has started threatening the free world with 100 megaton bombs!) The Congo provides half the West's uranium, 72% of our radium, 80% of our cobalt, 70% of our industrial diamonds.

There is no point in reviewing the tribal anarchy that prevailed in the Congo for a while. Suffice to say that Col. Joseph Mobutu emerged finally as a strong man—and ordered the communist embassies closed and sent the technicians packing.

He, along with President Joseph Kasavubu, achieved a stable government which was recognized by the United Nations. Remember Nikita Khrushchev's shoe-pounding exhibition? He vowed the communists would be back—and would have the last laugh.

Well, they're laughing now—and not merely at some clever quip by Adlai Stevenson, our United Nations ambassador.

They are laughing because a pro-communist coalition government has been established in the Congo; because the Congo army is to be returned to pro-communist control, and because United Nations forces (God save the mark!) are doing the dirty work of stamping out independence in Katanga Province in order to hand over its riches to the pro-communists!

And the United States is paying the bill for the operation!

It didn't require any clairvoyance to see how the communists planned the operation and carried it out.

On August 4, 1960, The Enquirer carried an editorial entitled: "UN: Cat's-Paw In Katanga?" We said then that the UN was "being asked to serve as a cat's-paw—to get the Belgians completely and finally out of the Congo, to conquer the secession in Katanga, and then to hand the whole package back to Lumumba . . . If this is done, it is utterly unrealistic to expect that the communists will not sooner or later take over."

This is precisely what has happened, except that the United Nations is handing the country back over to Lumumba's successors rather than the pro-red agitator himself.

It is almost startling to compare what Russia demanded, a year ago, and what the United Nations has done—with the USSR absenting itself, and the United States paying most of the bill.

The great initial damage was done while the UN operation was headed by Rajeshwar Dayal of India, former ambassador to Moscow. It was afterward condoned by UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld—who, as we feared, became the prisoner of Khrushchev's campaign against him.

Since then, UN conduct has become virtually unthinkable. Not only has the central government of the Congo virtually been ushered into pro-communist "neutral" hands, but the UN itself has committed bloody aggression against the Katanga province, using mainly Indian troops. The Associated Press reported Thursday: "The UN fired on a Katanga Army ambulance, seriously wounding the driver. On Wednesday, UN troops fired on an ambulance at point-blank range as it was attending two wounded Katangans."

This is a peace organization we're supporting?

While this was going on, the central government was appointing "a strong pro-communist to administer the affairs of the province."

Last February, writing in The Enquirer, UN correspondent William R. Frye told how Adlai Stevenson had "tied the Soviet Union in knots" in the Congo, and managed with "consummate skill to achieve, if not a Western-oriented, then at least a non-communist Congo."

AMBASSADOR STEVENSON sponsored the Security Council resolution under which Katanga is being subdued.

Who has tied whom into knots?

The British press has become very concerned over the UN actions in the Congo. Sen. Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut wrote President Kennedy:

Cultural (?) Exchange

Let's take a look at the article "American Bar Association Speaks" from the Congressional Record of February 25, 1959. The ABA states:

Nikita Khrushchev's famous report of 1956 lists cultural and business exchanges as one of these developments which will bring about the growing weakness of the United States and advance world socialism. On June 2, 1957, Khrushchev appeared on American television screens and called for a wider exchange of cultural delegations.

The primary activity of every one of Moscow's cultural delegates while in this country is to promote the Communist world revolution. E. H. Cockridge, former British Secret Service agent and an authority on Soviet espionage, had this to say: "Every Soviet football team, every athlete competing at an international sport event, Soviet scientists attending a congress abroad, the Moscow Ballet performing in a western capital or a group of Soviet artists at a film festival are invariably accompanied by special agents of the Soviet secret police." Judge Robert Morris, who spent the last 17 years intensively studying and exposing the Communist conspiracy, said: "In past years of the exchange, secret police have passed as farmers, ice skaters, clergymen, and scientists, for the purpose of conducting espionage operation in this country."

A.F.L. - C.I.O. President George Meany said, on cultural exchange, "No believer in the basic principles of free trade unionism could today conceivably desecrate these principles by undertaking to visit a country whose tyrannical leadership has for the 40 years of its existence been the avowed and uncompromising enemy of all human rights."

At this time there is playing in the United States a women's basketball team, men's basketball team and a soccer team. Pres. Kennedy and his wife recently led a glittering array of Washington officials and socialites to see Russia's Bolshoi Ballet.

AMERICAN COMM. OF CALIFORNIA for FREEDOM OF ENSLAVED NATIONS BEFORE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

Lenin's Selected Works 1908 (Published in N.Y.C. in 1943) Page 73:

"Hence the victory of socialism is possible first in a few or even in a single country taken separately, the victorious proletariat of that country having expropriated the capitalists and organized its own production would raise against the rest of the capitalist world and their states. In case of necessity come out even with armed forces against the exploiting classes and their states. Socialism is impossible without a stubborn struggle of the socialist republic."

We all know that Lenin's works are Khrushchev's Gospel. Is the above quote from Lenin's "Selected Works" indicating "his principles of peaceful coexistence?" But this is not all Lenin said about the coexistence.

Here is:

Lenin's "Draft Program For The Communist Party," March 18, 1918:

"International policy of our Party is: . . . Support of the revolutionary socialist proletariat in the capitalist countries in the first place . . . Propaganda agitation, fraternization and support of revolutionary movement in all countries in general and in colonies in particular . . ."

Lenin had even better "principles for co-existence" after the success of his revolution in Russia, let us take only two of them:

Lenin's Speech To The Communist International, July 21, 1920:

"Everywhere we have proletarian armies, although poorly organized and requiring reorganization. We are able to organize them in a single force, a single detachment. If you will help us accomplish this task of organizing them no one can prevent us from leading on to the victory of the world revolution and establishment of an "International Proletarian Soviet Republic."

In the fall of 1920 Lenin's "principles of cultural exchange" were made public in: Lenin's Speech To The Party's Secretaries, November 26, 1920:

"As soon as we are strong enough to defeat capitalism as a whole, we shall immediately take it by the scruff of the neck."

We only wonder if America's negotiators on "peaceful coexistence" with Soviet Russia ever read Lenin's "Selected Works on Coexistence." The previous quote from Lenin should make clear for every American that what the Kremlin pursues through "cultural exchange" is the continuation of communist conspiracy, spying and poisoning of American minds, while stealing from America the valuable American "Know-how."

This exchange was started under the Eisenhower Administration January 27, 1958. Ever since the two governments publish two magazines: "Amerika," published by the U.S. Department of State in Russian for the Russians; and "USSR," published by the Kremlin in English for the American readers. Now, both magazines are propaganda magazines, both are published in America in color, but the similarities end here. Russia's "USSR" is being sold for 20¢ and reaches the news stands throughout America in a matter of hours after printing. America's "Amerika" is sent by boat and takes 6-7 weeks on its way to Russia. Once there, the communist party's members take care of it in such a way that 4 weeks later the unopened bundles are returned to the U.S. Embassy in Moscow with the mention "Not Sold." Even if the magazine would be exhibited on the Soviet newstand, its price is $1.25 U.S. dollars. That means exactly $19.75 in Soviet money (at the legal exchange, not in use in USSR) or one week's wage for a Russian worker. But this is not all there is to it. The Russian citizen does not dare buy—even if he could afford to—American propaganda magazines because the Secret Police's shadow follows him even in his bed and in his dreams. At the same time millions of copies of "USSR" are sold to the American readers who are impressed by the happy faces of Soviet workers, industrial and educational achievement of communism in Russia, but how many Americans know that those splendid color pictures and graphics were printed right here in the Old Good United States of America.

So, my dear readers, we lose the score on this field. How about Opera, Ballet, science and agricultural exchanges? Again, let us analyze some of them.

Moscow's "Moiseyev Dancers" and "Bolshoi Ballet," whose members are both good dancers and good spies and communist propaganda tools, had a tremendous success in the United States. Ed Sullivan alone, made sure that 90 million Americans saw the dancers and probably 90% of them said to themselves: after all, how could those nice people and splendid performers be against our way of life, how could they want to "bury us," as Khrushchev threatened to do? While each and every dancer was a certified loyal member of the communist party, therefore not vulnerable to the American way of life, they were hosted by the Americans in their homes with steaks and champagne and once returned to Moscow told the Communist press that the Americans have no culture, no freedom and that the Negroes and minorities are slaves in America. After they left U.S. the polls showed what a large majority of the Americans believed in their sincerity, were duped by their propaganda.

The West still believes in "Summits," in diplomatic negotiations with the communists. Stalin wrote Russia's views on diplomacy in:

Stalin's "About Diplomacy," January 12, 1912:

"A diplomat's words must have no relation to his actions, otherwise what kind of diplomacy is it? Words are one thing and actions another. Good words are the mask for bad deeds, since diplomacy is no more possible than dry water or iron wood."

Dimitry Manuisky To The Students of Lenin Academy Of Political Warfare, 1930:

"War to the hilt between communism and capitalism is inevitable. Today, of course, we are not strong enough to attack. Our time will come in 20 or 30 years. To win, we shall need the element of surprise. The Bourgeoisie will have to be put to sleep. So we shall begin by launching the most spectacular peace movement on record. There will be electrifying overtures and unheard of concessions. The capitalist countries, stupid and decadent, will rejoice to cooperate in their own destruction. They will leap at another chance to be friends. As soon as their guard is down, we shall smash them with our clenched fists."

This very Manuisky was the President of the United Nations Security Council in 1949 and today is K's most trusted political advisor.

The Russians want to steal everything they can from this country's unequalled "know-how," they want to learn the secrets by which the people of this country build, from what once was unexplored land, the mightiest, the richest, the happiest, the most human nation called "United States of America."

To Our Readers

I have not been up to par healthwise for the past few months and have spent considerable time away from the office, although I have been in constant touch with my staff. Needless to say, the going has been rough. I am not complaining, nor quitting, just because I cannot accomplish that which I would like. I feel badly when I think about all the wonderful material we have which we would like to pass on to our readers, but for want of ample funds, time and qualified staff, we are slowed down in our activities.

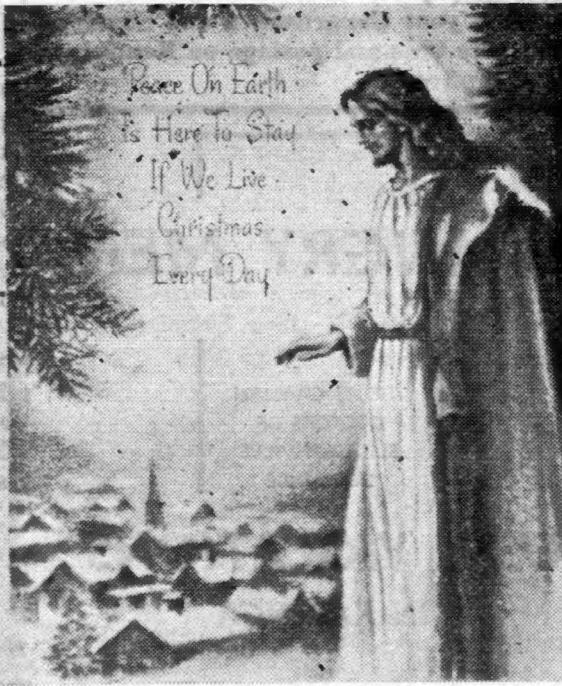

This is not an appeal for funds, nor sympathy. I know from the thousands of pieces of mail I have gone over these past few months, I have friends who are doing all they can, each in his own way. This brief message is to thank particularly those friends we have seemingly neglected for bearing with us, and to wish one and all a Holy and Blessed Christmas season and a Healthy, Happy 1963. It is also to ask your prayers for a speedy recovery so that I may continue in this fight as long as it is God's will for me to do so.

Conde McGahey

Christmas is Christ's Birthday

Christmas is more than a day in the year. More than a season of joy and good cheer. Christmas is really God's pattern for living. To be followed all year by unselfish giving. For the holiday season awakens good cheer and grows us closer to those we hold dear and we open our hearts and find it GOOD. To live among men AS WE ALWAYS SHOULD. But as soon as the angel is stripped from the scene the spirit of Christmas fades silently into the background of daily routine and is lost in the whirl of life's busy scenes and all unawares we miss and forego the greatest blessing that mankind can know. For if we lived Christmas each day as we should and made it our aim to always do good we'd find the lost key to meaningful living that comes not from GETTING, but from unselfish GIVING. And we'd know the great joy of PEACE UPON EARTH which was the real purpose of our Saviour's birth. For in the GLAD TIDINGS of the first Christmas night God showed us THE WAY and THE TRUTH and THE LIGHT.

Helen Steiner Rice

It is Christmastime again—Christ's birthday. This year has been a most eventful one for us in many ways with its moments of happiness, as well as its trials and disappointments. We have accomplished much; but not nearly so much as we would like; and what makes us feel most sad are those unanswered letters we have not been able to take care of due to a combination of circumstances.

We have many problems we cannot tell our readers about, but we have the determination to keep going until there is just no place to go. It would be easy to quit; however we have thousands of wonderful friends scattered over this America of ours and would not let them down under any circumstances. Hundreds of letters come to us each week telling us the results of our efforts—this is the "shot in the arm" that keeps us in the fight. Like Woolworth, we have many small contributors without whose help we would have been forced to go out of business. We have any number of friends who have helped us out in times of trial. We have enemies, too,—vicious, diabolical ones; and they are always busy!

Christmas brings back many memories of the past year, and those unanswered letters haunt us, but please bear with us—we are doing all we can.

We would like to be able to send each one of our friends a Christmas card, but this would be expensive and would not convey the message we want to send. From the bottom of our hearts we wish each and every one God's choicest blessings for the Christmas season and good health, joy and happiness in the year to come.

Nineteen Sixty Three will be a crucial year in the history of our country. We are going to do all we can to save Christianity and our Country from being taken over from within or without, and we ask each and every one to give some serious thought as to how he can best help in this fight. Do your part in this crusade. Unless we are militant Christians, as we should be, and fight to retain our freedom, we are going to lose it. What will we do then? Who will help us? Give some thought to your freedom—it is slipping away fast. Don't let George do it—DO SOMETHING YOURSELF!

Constitution intended. FOR each state allocating to each student his pro-rate share of tuition costs at the school his parents choose: public, private, segregated, integrated, Baptist, Catholic, Jewish. Under such a plan people who didn't get rich in liquor traffic could still send their children to private, segregated schools, as the Kennedy's do.

I'm FOR allowing the Negro the opportunity to develop himself to his fullest capabilities, to contribute his utmost to mankind, and to develop pride of race which will not let him force himself upon those who do not want to associate with him on equal terms. (All people are equal, as anyone who looks around him can plainly see.)

I'm FOR all churches which teach the divinity of a personal God who rewards goodness, punishes evil; and against any group which would force One Church on everybody.

"There's no use in hashing over the past. Where do we go from here? You often hear that thought expressed. We eccentrics are FOR hashing over the past. We can't find out where we're going and how to get there unless we understand where we've been. As Santayana said: "If we will not learn from history, we are condemned to repeat it."

FOR FREEDOM CORPS NOT PEACE CORPS

I'm FOR fighting fire with fire by infiltrating the Iron Curtain with freedom fighters. FOR getting off the defensive and on the offensive. FOR stopping apologizing and starting organizing the enslaved patriots of Hungary, Poland, Latvia, Estonia, Cuba, Ukraine, East Germany, Czechoslovakia and Mississippi. FOR a Freedom Corps instead of a Peace Corps. FOR an end to being pushed around at home and pushed back abroad.

I'm FOR giving foreign aid to Mississippi as we do for other conquered people. The reason the United States won the Battle of Oxford is because the State Department had nothing to do with it. I'm FOR Governor Barnett and General Walker.

FOR making it just as illegal for labor unions to make campaign contributions to public office seekers as it is for corporations. FOR a law against strikes by any public employee. Why should government employees even belong to unions? FOR broadening our "depressed areas" program to include retarded congressmen.

I'm FOR restoring a free economy in America to once again enable American industry to compete with the world. And after that, FOR penalizing all Americans who invest capital in foreign nations in order to avoid American taxes, thus penalizing all other American workers. FOR the Common Market for foreigners, and the Uncommon Market for U.S. FOR trading business-to-business, not government-to-government.

I'm FOR getting out of the United Nations and getting into a council of free nations as suggested by Herbert Hoover. In the meantime, I'm FOR letting the U. N. make the rules for disarmament just as soon as we let the fox make the rules for the hen house.

Unlike many middle-aged people, I'm FOR birthdays—simply because I'm against the alternative. But I'm also FOR realizing that the greatest man who ever lived died at age 33.

FOR restoring the sovereignty of our states, which is our strongest bulwark against communism. FOR outlawing the American Communist Party and trying all members for treason. Communism is not a "Party." It's a diseased, anti-God tyranny, a dedicated diabolical conspiracy to enslave mankind. FOR Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Drew Pearson extending their visit to Mr. and Mrs. Tito of Yugoslavia for a lifetime.

What I am "FOR"

STRAIGHT TALK

Republished from FARM and RANCH
By Thomas J. Anderson, Editor & Chief
(As a favor to America)

"Well, What're you gonna be against this month?" a friend inquired. It ain't easy deciding, folks. But this month I'm gonna be For. There are so many things and people and ideas to be FOR that I'm like the mosquito at the nudist camp: I know what I ought to do, but I don't know where to begin.

J. Edgar Hoover, who catches communists faster than the Supreme Court turns them loose, has said: "Unfortunately, some people . . . are against communism without being for freedom. They are against ignorance without being for education. They are against sin without being for good."

I'm FOR people who'll take a stand. Christ had this to say about "moderates" (middle-of-the-roaders), a religious type He denounced in no uncertain terms: "I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth." (Rev. 3:15-16)

Anyone who takes the trouble to think about it knows there are times when the negative has a cutting edge that the positive lacks. I'm FOR those negative people who wrote the Bible, even though seven of the Ten Commandments start with "Thou shalt not."

FOR Kennedy, FOR Impeachment

I'm FOR Jack Kennedy, FOR impeachment, for being morally and intellectually unstable, and for taking us to dictatorship and surrender to the Communist United Nations. (My father didn't HAVE to tell his businessmen sons what all the Kennedy Klan are. We've ALWAYS believed it.) FOR more humane treatment for all our mentally sick, including moving all crazy people to Washington, where they'll feel more at home.

I'm FOR relieving human suffering, by killing our federal personal income tax. I'm FOR putting the Roosevelt memorial beside the statue of Christopher Columbus, the greatest New Dealer of them all, who started out not knowing where he was going, who arrived not knowing where he was, who in returning did not know where he had been, and who did it all on borrowed money.

I'm FOR the Constitution of the United States, which was written for the "horse and buggy" days—as were the Ten Commandments. FOR fulfilling our commitments to the future by keeping our contract with the past. FOR the South raising less cotton and more hell. FOR "self-determination" for all foreign states, including the once-sovereign State of Mississippi.

FOR integrated schools—for those who want them, and FOR segregated schools for those who don't. FOR the Federal Government leaving education to the states, as the

Will Katanga Go Communist?

"There is every reason why the Congo should remain free. If it does go communist, it will not be because of Soviet strength or because the Congolese people want communism; it will be because of United Nations policy in the Congo and because of the perverse folly that induces us to support this policy with our prestige and our money."

Appeal to Kennedy

Addressee: President Kennedy - Washington.
Text: Do you agree with bombardment of hospitals, schools, missions, churches, private homes, as principal mortar fire targets by Indian U.N.O. troops, night of December 7-8 - stop - Ten shells landed on Prince Leopold hospital - stop - Protest against indirect American support given to massacre innocent civilian population.

Common Sense note—

Since the above article was written, the U.N. has sent troops into Katanga and slaughtered hundreds of innocent people. Where did they get the right to invade a country with military forces? Eugeny D. Kiselev, a communist at the U.N. has charge of United Nations military forces.

Our State Department and the U.N. are now preparing a large expedition of troops (some U.S.) to be sent into Katanga. The U.N. has spent 300 million dollars in the Congo, most of which is out of the pockets of U.S. taxpayers.

MY MIND IS MADE UP - DON'T CONFUSE ME WITH FACTS

Common Sense has more than a thousand such pieces of proof, but if anyone says the Jews set-up communism and spread it over the world, they are branded anti-Semitic, bigots and hate mongers.

No one is more sure we print facts than the Jewish leaders themselves.

(Below are actual photostats).

"I call your special attention to the fact that the name of Paul M. Warburg, as Treasurer of this institution [American-German Student Exchange], confirms our previous reports concerning the activities of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., the Warburgs, Sir William Wiseman and Otto Kahn, and shows conclusively the interests which these individuals have in this bering in process into our college life, utilizing all of their activities on behalf of the Soviet Government of Russia. . . . The Warburgs . . . are heading the German-Jewish element to create strife and discord in this country. I call your special attention to the . . . fact that this outfit picks out George D. Pratt, Jr. [Bridgewater, Conn.], who is a relative of the Rockefellers, making a Gentile front out of him, so that in case their activities result in unpleasant conditions in this country in the future, they will be able to put a Rockefeller to the front, as the cause thereof. I again say to you that the conditions existing throughout the country in connection with this [Liberal] Youth Movement, are of a most serious character and that the people who are manipulating the same, are unquestionably the German-Jews mentioned in my previous communications and reports, who are backed by untold millions and whose activities are subject to scrutiny by no governmental agencies that I know of."

What I am "FOR"

I'm FOR patronizing advertisers who support pro-American, pro-constitutional, pro-free enterprise publications. FOR boycotting those who support the socialistic, one-worlding publications and radio-tv programs. FOR convincing the fellow who says "What can I do?" that the great ships on the seas are turned around by a little bitsy rudder.

I'm FOR freedom of speech. Even for the likes of the dear lady who talked so incessantly her husband felt compelled to sue her for divorce. The Judge asked the husband, "What does she talk about constantly?"

"Judge, she never do say."

"THIRD WORLD WAR" Record

By Benjamin H. Freedman

This record is now of renewed interest, for Israel and the Arab states are on the verge of war.

We suggest you put this record in action among your friends and help create sentiment against Kennedy sending our boys to die, to prevent the Jews from giving back the territory they stole from the Arabs. One million Arabs, driven from their homes, still exist in the desert, poorly fed by our taxpayers through the United Nations.

Those who do not have these two unusual long playing records can secure them from us for $5.00—a copy of Mr. Freedman's book "Facts are Facts" will be sent free with each order.

WE SEE WE TURN WE FEEL RED, WHITE & BLUE

RED! We see red before our eyes wherever we turn. The red blood of our sons, our brothers and our husbands is soaking the earth beneath them in Korea. The red flag is waving over half the population of the world. Reds have infiltrated into high positions in our government and the institutions vital to our national existence. And the people only "yak-yak" about it!

WHITE! We turn white at the thought of what is going to happen to millions of innocent Christian Americans on the day the i-n-v-i-s-i-b-l-e Marxist u-n-d-e-r-g-r-o-u-n-d in this country, waiting for the "whistle to blow," takes over the government in this country as they did in Russia in 1917 and thirteen other countries since! God have mercy on us!

BLUE! We feel blue that this paper might go out of existence for the want of a few thousand dollars. The editor put the last dollar of his life's savings into this medium to inform and alert America. The bottom of the barrel is scraped clean, but he keeps going!
